

Subject: Press Release on occasion of inauguration of First Robotics Lab in Jammu and Kashmir in Association With e-Yantra IIT Bombay

Bhargava College of Engineering and Technology, Supwal, Samba has set up First Robotics Lab in Jammu and Kashmir in Association with IIT Bombay as a Part of e-Yantra Lab set up initiatives (eLSI) on 3rd May 2018

The Lab was inaugurated in Presence of Sh. Parkash Sharma, Chairman of the College, MD Sh. Sanjeev Sharma, Trustee Rajesh Sharma and Director BCET.

Various Heads of the Department along with Faculty and Students of the College were also a part of the function.

Chief Guest of the Function congratulated the Director and Staff of the college for such a great initiatives to establish Robotics Lab for uplifting the practical approach of the students to excel in the field of Robotics.

In his address, Director brought to the knowledge of dignitaries about the tie up and Association under taken by the college with IIT's to strengthen the academics in the college.

Sh. Parkash Sharma Chairman of the college also thanked the Teachers for their efforts to set up the Lab and declared that Lab will be opened for the External Students of other colleges also.

This is the first Lab of Robotics in J&K State in any Institute of Higher Learning and Lab is partially funded by IIT Bombay.

e-yantra lab setup initiative (eLSI)
in Association with IIT Bombay Valedictory Function and Lab Inauguration

